

Mac's Supermarket to Open Here In Former Safeway Location

Mac Steele, who recently purchased the Safeway Store here, said here Tuesday that he would have the store cleaned up, restocked and opened again by either Thursday or Friday. Mr. Steele said that Paul Russell, former manager of Thornton's Food Stores in Abilene, will be the local manager.

Mr. Russell said that he hoped that they would be ready to open by Thursday but that it might be Friday before they would be able to get all of their stock here.

Safeway closed the store here Saturday, Sept. 19, and moved all of their stock out to other stores. Curtis Dodd, manager for Safeway here, has been transferred to Dallas.

Mr. Steele is a resident of Spur and owns a store there as well as three other West Texas stores, including one in Aspermont.

Mr. Russell and his wife moved here the first of this week and are members of the Baptist Church. While not a member while in Abilene, he was a member of the Lions Club for a number of years.

He said that in his 30 years in the grocery business he has always tried to operate a friendly store with good personnel and customer relations. In announcing their intention of opening this week end, Mr. Russell said that they will offer a complete stock of nationally advertised brands and only choice quality meats. He added that all of their red meat will be served across the counter. The store will give Frontier Trading Stamps.

Jack Waldrop, who was employed by Safeway here, has been retained as assistant manager, according to Mr. Russell.

Plans are now being made for a big grand opening event in the near future.

Members of junior high football teams or boys certified to represent their school team are not eligible to participate.

Registration must be completed at the local Ford dealers by Oct. 9.

ANNIVERSARY EDITION OF NEWSPAPER NOW IN LIBRARY

Woman's Forum Places Bound 1939 Issue of Herald in Library

A permanently bound volume of The Hamlin Herald published May 26, 1939, marking the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the ownership of the paper by the editor, Bowen Pope, was presented to the Harden Memorial Library at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Hamlin Women's Forum.

The 44-page edition is an accurate record of the history of Hamlin and its people up to 1939. The issue used was one which had been kept in good condition by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carpenter. The pages have been protected by a laminated plastic process.

Mrs. Dick Maberry and Mrs. Bob Craig of the Woman's Literary Club, members of a special committee appointed for the project, presented the book to Mrs. Joe League, Forum president. Mrs. League then placed it in the library by presenting it to Mrs. Dale Lain, library chairman.

The project was started last year and all clubs who are members of the Forum have taken part. The paper was preserved in order to have the information contained in the special issue in a convenient place for ready reference. The book must be used at the library and may not be checked out as other books.

The clubs sponsoring the project were: the Beta Theta and Xi Gamma Pi Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Business and Professional Women's Club, Fifty-two Study Club, Friendship Home Demonstration Club, Hamlin Garden Club and Woman's Literary Club.

The program was presented by Mrs. L. C. Bonds of the Beta Theta Chapter. She used a display of pictures of paintings by famous artists and discussed the paintings and the life of the artists.

The library committee reported that 43 books had been added to the shelves of the library. Other business included the presentation of revisions of the constitution and by-laws for the Forum.

The Forum meets quarterly, on fifth Tuesdays.

The services are being held in Spanish. The pastor, Rev. Higinio Martinez, is leading the song service.

The services began here Sunday and will continue nightly through Sunday, Oct. 4. This is being held as a part of a statewide Crusade aimed at reaching 2½ million unevangelized Latin American people of Texas with the gospel.

Pipers to Open District Race With Stamford Fri.

The Pied Pipers will open their drive for the District 5-AA championship Friday night when they invade Stamford to take on the Bulldogs. While the Pipers were taking the week off last week to rest up for this encounter the Bulldogs were defeated by Breckenridge, 23-6.

Other district battles pit Winters at Anson; and Colorado City at Haskell. Ballinger takes this week off and will open their district play here next week against the Pipers.

Stamford will carry a 2-2 season record into Friday night's contest, holding wins over Quanah and Snyder and losses to Iowa Park and Breckenridge. The Pipers are undefeated after three outings this season.

The Bulldogs have a strong ground attack and a pretty good aerial assault, according to scouting reports by the Piper coaches. Top running back for the Bulldogs is Harrison Cole, a 162 pound halfback who is also a fine blocking back. For power Stamford calls on FB

Stamford calls on fullback Keith Kainer who weighs 195 pounds. At quarterback they run Rusty Kelley who weighs 147 pounds and is a good passer but does not run with the ball much.

The best receivers for the Bulldogs are halfback Bob Isbell and end Marc Lovvorn.

Top defensive boys are Kainer, Raymond Gomez and Eddie Jenkins.

Probable starting lineups for the Bulldogs and their weights are: QB—Kelley, 147 pounds; FB—Kainer, 195 pounds; HB—

Isbell, 156 pounds; HB—Cole, 162 pounds; ends—Lovvorn, 168 pounds, and Russell, 172 pounds, tackles—Johnny Massey, 178 pounds, and Roland Acosta, 200 pounds; guards—Jenkins, 172 pounds, and Gomez, 164 pounds; center—Buddy Box, 180 pounds.

Coach D. C. Andrews, said this week that while Larry Simpson's knee was doing better it was doubtful that he would get to see any action in Friday night's encounter. He said that they were still hoping but it did not seem too likely that he would be ready. Simpson was hurt in the Post game here two weeks ago.

While some of the boys are still nursing injuries early this week, Andrews said that he thought that they would all be ready by Friday.

Reserve seat tickets for the game are on sale at the three drug stores but it is reported that they are just about sold out. Stamford sent 400 tickets over here last week for the game.

Mike Young Receives High Scout Honor Here Monday Evening

Mike Young, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Young received the Ad Altare Dei award during the Court of Honor held by Troop 43 Monday evening in the Scout Hut. Father Patrick O'Connor of Stamford pastor of the Holy Trinity Catholic Church here, made the presentation.

Mike is the first boy in Hamlin to receive such an award. The Ad Altare Dei is presented by the Catholic church through the Boy Scouts of America. Translated from the Latin it means "Toward the Altar of God." The honor is presented only to a Scout after the boy has spent much time in dedicated work with the pastor of his church. He serves in many ways assisting the pastor in tasks at the church and serving during services. Mike has put in more than a year's work in completing requirements for the honor. Only one other Jones County boy has received the award which was presented through the Protestant faith in Stamford. The Protestant church gives the "God and Country" award.

In making the presentation, Father O'Connor spoke to the Scouts briefly on how the principals of Scouting build character by building courage and self confidence and by encouraging a boy to seek knowledge and skills and to be honorable.

Other boys receiving Scouting honors were Bill Johnson, Bobby McKissack, Russell Williamson, Dave Weaver and David Riddle.

J. O. Murphree, one of the Scout leaders, announced a camp-out at the hut Saturday and Sunday. The boys will be working for merit badges and advance in rank.

ACCORDING TO TRADE ASSOCIATION—

Oil and Gas Production Adds $17.1 Million A Year to Jones County Economy, 66th in State

A $17.1 million a year ingredient in the prosperity of Jones County is the production of oil and gas, the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association says in its current survey of economic factors stemming from petroleum operations here.

Using just-published U. S. Bureau of Mines figures as a base, the Association has projected what oil and gas activities mean in this county. In 1962 Jones County was producing more than 5.5 million barrels of crude oil and 6 billion cubic feet of natural gas. The oil was valued at $16.3 million; the natural gas at $761,000.

Jones County ranks 66th in the state as total value of oil and gas production.

"Demand for Texas crude picked up enough last year to give us an increase of about 3 per cent over 1962 on a statewide basis. This slightly improving trend seems to be holding this year as more autos are put on the road and nationwide business conditions accelerate," said James L. Sewell, president of the Association. "It will be several months, however, before we know to what extent individual counties are participating in the current market."

The dispersion of oil dollars through Jones County business channels and the healthy effect given property values by petroleum industry activity are indicated by several figures published by the Association.

It is estimated that royalty payments to Jones County land owners who are fortunate enough to have producing wells on their property create a "crop" worth about $2.1 million annually. These and other farmers and ranchers who have leased acreage for exploration receive additional rental and bonus payments, but sufficient current data is not available for measuring the amount.

Oil and gas operators invested an estimated $2.8 million in Jones County last year in the search for new fields and in the development of zones where production has been found. The Oil and Gas Journal reports that 134 wells were drilled in the county in 1963, resulting in 64 oil wells, and 70 dry holes.

Drilling operations included 47 wildcat wells in which operators hunted oil in new territory or at new depths. About $1.3 million of the drilling expenditures was lost to dry holes, the Association estimated.

Petroleum industry payrolls contribute about $1.4 million a year to the county, according to Texas Employment Commission records. They show about 250 persons directly employed in oil and gas operations.

The state government's financial interest in Jones County operations is measured by the $805,000 a year which the operators and royalty owners provide the state government in production taxes. These payments are in addition to those paid to local units of government and schools as property taxes. Oil and gas property taxes are reflected in local support of many Texas school districts. For example, 26 per cent of the local taxes for the Anson School District comes from oil and gas operations; 45.7 per cent at Avoca; 54.7 per cent at Hamlin; 63.5 per cent at Hawley; and 62.5 per cent at Lueders.

Among the county's industrial operations is the processing of oil and gas. A natural gasoline plant is operated here to recover butane, propane, natural gasoline and other liquids from natural gas. It has a capacity of 20 million cubic feet a day.

MAKING WAY...

The drawbridge makes way for the boat to come into the city and down the canal. Dredges make canals in open waters such as the gulf to make way for ships to travel an inter-coastal waterway. Police officers and secret service men clear a path in the crowds to make way for an important foreign potentate so that he might arrive at his destination.

Church members are the ones who can clear the way, and show the right path to those who have not found the way to our Lord.

Isaiah 40:3B reads, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

Support your church in every way you can. Ask someone to attend church with you this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Lt. Rowland Steele In NATO Exercise

SEVENTH U. S. ARMY, GERMANY (AHTNC)—First Lt. Rowland G. Steele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele, Route 3, and other members of the Seventh U. S. Army, are participating in Exercise FAL-LEX 64, an eight-day NATO directed and controlled training exercise in Germany, ending Sept. 28.

The bi-annual exercise is designed to test and evaluate coordination procedures and command communications within the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) military structure in Europe. Orders and communications between headquarters command posts and the dissemination of information to lower headquarters are being stressed to insure maximum proficiency during the training exercise.

Lieutenant Steele, an aviator in the 67th Aviation Company in Germany, entered the Army in May 1961.

The 24-year-old soldier is a 1957 graduate of Hamlin High School and a 1961 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wallace are announcing the arrival of a granddaughter, Shelley Rei Mancill. She arrived Sept. 23 at the Midland Memorial Hospital. She weighed 7 lb. 1 oz. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kirk Mancill, 121 So. Dewberry, Midland.

Maternal great-grandmother is Mrs. Myrtle Locke. O. L. Wallace is the paternal great-grandfather.

From Last Week

We were all happy that one of our girls, out our way, was chosen homecoming queen of the high school. Nancy Ford was crowned Saturday night, along with Mrs. Kenneth Riddle, who was queen of the ex-students. Mrs. Riddle was reared in Hamlin, but her husband, Kenneth, is one of our ex-residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Joiner, Jerry and Susan, spent Saturday night and Sunday, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner. Mrs. Joiner was one of the nominees for ex-queen.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Rosenbaum, Pampa, came home for the homecoming, visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum.

Joe Randal is the name that was chosen for the new son of the Jack D. Wrights, at news time last week the name had not been learned.

Dorothy Gray came home from Amarillo, last weekend, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray.

This reporter spent most of last week in the big city of Houston, as a delegate to the State Home Demonstration Convention, held in the Rice Hotel. Had a wonderful time, there were some outstanding highlights in the convention this year, and just had an all around good time. Forty one women rode a chartered bus from district 3, which includes twelve counties, the women from Jones county having to go to Benjamin, to board the bus. Four ladies from Jones attended, Mrs. Karl Bonneaux, Goodman club, Mrs. H. H. Dunklin, Avoca club, Mrs. H. A. Haynes, Willow Creek club, and myself, from the Friendship club.

This Week

About the main topic of conversation you hear, any where you go now, is the rainy weather, but the sun is shining brightly this Monday morning, after it rained most of last week and being cloudy and dreary. Heaters had to come out of storage over the week end, making us realize that winter will soon be here.

Since the Family night was planned again at the park, last Wednesday night, as usual it was rained out, but was to be held at the church, Wednesday night, in connection with the mid week services. Sandwiches, dessert and coffee, with cold drinks, were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavil Holmes have both been on the sick list, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray ate lunch with the Woodrow Goodwins, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clois Henry and children, of San Angelo, spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry.

Sunday afternoon visitors of the Henrys were, Mrs. Vida Baker and Mrs. Ora McCollough, of Rule.

Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Levrett, attended a dinner at Hardin-Simmons, last Tuesday evening, honoring the pastors and their wives, of this area. Main speaker of the evening was Dr. James Landes, president of H. S. U. They reported a wonderful and inspiring evening. Kimmy and Kristy also had a good time visiting with grandmother, in Abilene.

Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Mrs. Elmer Joiner visited Mrs. Lois Hampton, in the Crestview Nursing Home, in Abilene, Saturday morning. Mrs. Hampton is undergoing therapy treatments, on her paralyzed side, also speech therapy. The therapist has high hopes that she will be able to walk again, as her leg is responding to treatment. She is also learning to speak a few words, which makes her many friends and relatives hopeful that she will make a recovery, even though limited.

The Woodrow Goodwins have a new house under construction, in south Hamlin. After a long period of planning and waiting, it can now be told, for work really started last week, the rain slowed it down, but with some pretty weather, they should soon see it taking shape. They will move into it when it is completed, continuing to farm.

German beehives are painted bright colors to guide the bees to their own hives.

The weather has halted cotton gathering and the leaves have come out on the cotton to such an extent that it will be difficult to find that which is open. Before the rains started some fields were good pulling, whereas with the abundant crop of leaves, you can hardly see any cotton now. The greater part of it will be harvested after frost with strippers, since the crop will be rather short this year any way.

After wishing to serve on a jury, these many years, this reporter got enough of it to satisfy me for a long time to come. Although it is rather interesting, when you spend six and a half days on one case, you feel like you have performed your civic duty for some time to come. After a recess of one week, the case was resumed last Monday and lasting through Wednesday, so it seemed that all concerned were happy to be released.

TB Board to Meet

The Jones County Tuberculosis Board will meet at Jack's Steak House in Anson, Monday, Oct. 5, at 7:30 p.m., according to Ima B. Dougherty, executive secretary of the T. B. Association for Jones County.

All board members and other interested persons are urged to attend.

Wins Free Gift

Mrs. L. B. Williams, 530 West Lake Drive, was winner of the free gift, a lava set, given at Betty's Gift Shop during open house Saturday.

Punch and cookies were served during the day by Reba Long and Rhonda Hallmark.

THE HAMLIN HERALD

National Honor Society Soon Will Select Members

With the approach of the end of the first six weeks of the school term Oct. 9, the time has come for the National Honor Society to make plans for the induction of new members into the organization.

The Hamlin Chapter, with Mrs. Charles Scott as advisor, follows the policy of the National organization. New members are inducted each year shortly after the completion of the first six week's grades.

The National organization was established to give recognition to a combination of four qualities, rather than to a specific skill or achievement. Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service are the four qualities upon which membership is based.

Character and Scholarship are unquestioned traits of a member of any honor club. However, National Honor Society members should be those students who also take an interest in others and their welfare, who give themselves freely in service to those about them.

Local membership is limited in another way, too. Only fifteen per cent of any year's senior class may be members, and only ten per cent of the junior class.

By secret ballot, junior and senior students with high scholastic averages are rated by a committee consisting of the members of the National Honor Society and an equal number of faculty members.

Call your news to the Herald.

Pep Squad Going All Out in Building Spirit for Football Game

Pipers Meet Bulldogs This Week

"Go! Fight! Win!" read the signs adorning the halls of HHS this week. The lockers are covered with signs to promote the spirit of each member of the student body. The ambitious pep squad has worked long hours preparing these spirit banners for the Piper's first conference game of the season Friday night at Bulldog Stadium.

The football boys, recuperating from their many injuries received in the Post game, are practicing and working out diligently in order to be prepared for this "game of the year."

The coaches are expecting a tough contest with the outcome to be in Hamlin's favor, if everyone is out backing the team.

As the year advances various school organizations are planning this year's activities.

The Future Homemakers of America met Sept. 17, to initiate its new members. A panel discussion was presented to inform the new members about the activities and functions of this organization. Mary Lois Patterson, as narrator, introduced and conducted the discussion with Revonna Robertson, Mary Margaret Turner, Judy Jenkins, Barbara Graham, Nancy Ford, and Marolyn Reynolds assisting her. Also present at the meeting were Mrs. Camille Simmons and Mrs. Arla Felts, the new homemaking instructor.

The Library Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Dewey Nunley, had its first meeting Monday night, Sept. 28. An informal, but informative, panel discussion was presented by four members — Mary Lois Patterson, Geneva Ward, Judy Jenkins, and Marolyn Reynolds — to introduce to the new members the functions and activities of the organization.

"All right, Freshman, where do you think you're going? It's Slave Day Again! Don't you know that every Monday is Slave Day Again! Don't you grumble, reluctant slaves trudging obediently after their masters, mentally pacifying themselves with, "Thank goodness! Just one day a week!"

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carpenter have just returned from a vacation in Smoky Mountain National Park and other points in Tennessee and North Carolina. They also visited relatives in Dalton, Ga.

George Huling has returned home after spending two years active duty in the Navy.

Incumbent ASC County Members Reelected at Sept. Convention

The incumbent ASC County Committee was reelected at the County Convention held in the County ASCS Office on Sept. 18. Members of the County Committee are: J. Noel Weaver, Chairman; A. Darwin Hill, Vice Chairman; John E. Nix, Third Regular Member. The tenure of office is one year, beginning Oct. 1, 1964.

Each farmer who serves as an ASC Committeeman will have a hand in deciding the kind of program the County will have and how they will be run. The Committeeman is in a position to make lasting contributions to the soundness of conservation and agriculture, and to the improvement of farm income in the county. A Committeeman's job is important to other farmers.

The use of farmer elected committees follows the farmer's tradition of retaining, as his sovereign right, a citizen's voice and responsibility in public affairs. This tradition has survived the technological revolution in agriculture and the political, social, and economic changes in the Nation.

Such tradition and confidence led the Congress and the Department of Agriculture to place upon farmer committees much responsibility for running farm programs locally. ASC Committees operate within official regulations designed to carry out Federal laws. However, within the regulations, they apply their judgment and knowledge and make their decisions.

ASC County Committees have many duties and responsibilities. In production adjustment, they established farm normal yields, consider complaints of producers, supervise referendums on marketing quotas, and determine penalties and adjustments. In conservation, they formulate local programs, review farmer requests for cost-sharing on needed practices, and recommend changes in State and National programs.

In price support, they supervise the determination of producers' eligibility and decide what is adequate collateral for loans. Committees have similar kinds of responsibilities in connection with the wool, feed grain and wheat diversion programs.

ASC Committees review violations, hold hearings, and make other determinations and recommendations in connection with all programs. Perhaps their most difficult responsibility is their role of impartial judge in a variety of cases that come under their jurisdiction. Often, it's a matter of balancing the general interest with the individual's interest. They work with their ASC State

Committee and the Department of Agriculture, and are responsible for keeping farmers and others informed on farm programs of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Your ASC Committee has an intimate understanding of farm problems and of people in the County. This enables the Committee to make local adaptations of farm problems within the needs of farmers. You as a farmer directly affected by laws to meet the different

And you have the mechanism for transmitting ideas on policies and programs from the "grassroots".

Your ASC Committeemen, both individually and working as a committee, have a dual role. They serve as representatives of you and your neighbors in these programs. They also serve as representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture. Your local ASC Committee meets each Friday at the County ASCS Office.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — It's almost time to vote again. General election ballots already are in the hands of local officials, for printing.

Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin has mailed out the sample ballot to the clerks. Along with a 44-page certified list of all state and district candidates. Many clerks had been pressing for the material so they could order necessary printing well in advance of the November 3 election date.

Absentee voting begins 20 days before the general election, and clerks must post ballots 10 days earlier than that.

This ballot will list Democratic nominees in column 1, Republicans in column 2 and Constitution Party candidates in column 3.

Three constitutional amendments also will appear on the ballot:

One would remove authorization for transfer of up to one per cent a year from the permanent school fund to the available school fund for current spending;

Another would set tougher requirements for creation of special conservation and reclamation districts; and

The third would permit the Legislature to authorize medical care payments (on a matching basis with the federal government) to needy persons over 65 who are not receiving old age assistance.

Martin held up his final certification of candidates pending a Supreme Court ruling on a Scurry and Borden Counties suit. Court declined to hear Snyder attorney J. Ray Martin's request for finding as an independent candidate for 132nd district attorney. Martin also sought, unsuccessfully, to keep Democratic nominee for district attorney, Wayland G. Holt, off the November ballot.

MENTAL RETARDED FACILITY APPROVED

Gov. John Connally has directed a fund transfer between two state agencies to create a Regional Diagnostic and Referral Center for mental retarded at Denton State School.

State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools requested the executive action calling for transfer of a $467,000 grant from the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare by the State Department of Health.

Center will provide services in diagnosis, management of the the retarded and training of personnel for the North Texas area surrounding Dallas and Fort Worth. The Children's Bureau grant will be used to pay personnel over a five-year period.

Application has been made for a Hill-Burton grant to finance construction of a building.

CITIZENS COMPLAIN
A band of citizens from Nolan County came to Austin to call on State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer with a petition requesting his department to reconsider a decision to close the engineering office at Sweetwater.

Greer said the decision to close was due to slackening of the work load in that area, but said that the petition will be given careful consideration.

WATER
Water engineers from 17 Western States discussed and swapped ideas on how their states are attacking the coming water crisis at the Association of Western State Engineers' convention here.

Marvin C. Nichols of Fort Worth told the group that the proposal of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation for a canal along the Gulf Coast, to carry surplus waters from the Sabine and Nueces to water-shy Gulf Coast areas of South Texas, should be held up until the state gets the money from the Legislature to investigate alternatives. He feels that canals or pipelines, carrying surplus East Texas water to upper points of Central and South Texas streams, would be far better. Thus the water could be used more than once.

Leon Hill of Amarillo, regional director of the Bureau of Reclamation, said that engineers can propose plans, but they must be refined into "people plans" before they will gain enough public acceptance to reach reality.

John Simmons of Orange, general manager of the Sabine River Authority, endorsed the idea of that big river's surplus water being carried to areas which need it. He believes such transfers of water should be made by arrangements between river authorities, under supervision of the Texas Water Commission.

J. E. Sturrock of Austin, manager of the Texas Water Conservation Association, told the delegates that by the year 2010, population growth may necessitate the $100,000,000 proposal to move water from Alaska to supply the Southwest United States and Northwest Mexico. He warned the water engineers that it is their responsibility to educate the people on the coming crisis in water, and to be ready with proposals to meet that crisis.

VAST LAND PROGRAM RENEWAL URGED

State Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler says Texans ought to vote again on whether to continue the veterans land program.

It is just now starting to make money for the state, he advises in his annual General Land Office report. Profits were reported as nearly $3,000,000 last year and eventually should run to $80,000,000 maybe $100,000,000.

Voters last year turned down a proposal to issue an additional $150,000,000 in bonds to continue the purchase of land for resale to qualified veterans at low interest rates.

Several Activities Being Planned For 4-H Club Week in Jones County

By Kirby Clayton
Mary Y. Newberry

Jones Co. Extension Agents

Four hundred Jones County 4-H Club members will join hands with 80,000 other members in the State of Texas to observe National 4-H Club Week, Sept. 26 - Oct. 3, according to Jones County Extension Agents, Mary Y. Newberry and Kirby Clayton. The Head - Heart - Hands - Health youth are among 2 1/4 million members of 94,700 clubs in urban, suburban and rural areas throughout the 50 states and Puerto Rico. With the goal of "4-H for More in '64", current emphasis is on the program's flexibility — club projects and activities adaptable to fit needs of youth from any background or circumstance.

Among the special 4-H week activities planned for Jones County are:

Special radio and television program by 4-H members and local leaders where the value of 4-H Club work will be explained.

In addition 4-H Club members will display 4-H posters and put on special programs on 4-H Club work.

Also, a part of the National 4-H Club week celebration will be a county wide effort by Extension Agents, local leaders and club members to enroll additional club members in the local 4-H program. The enrollment theme is "Each One Get One" which means that if each club member enrolls another, the county's club enrollment will double during this push.

Special incentive awards are being offered by the Extension Service for those members who enroll one or more members.

Incentive awards include member buttons, gate signs and flag sets.

A major local and national aim of this year's 4-H Week observance will be to recognize the 50th anniversary of the Cooperative Extension Service, of which the 4-H youth program is a significant part. In

Other local and national aims of this year's 4-H Week observance are to: Stress career exploration and the importance of wise vocational choice; encourage capable, youth-minded men and women to become 4-H leaders; and provide opportunity for clubs to honor their local 4-H friends and express appreciation for their valued assistance.

Mac's Supermarket to Open Here In Former Safeway Location

Mac Steele, who recently purchased the Safeway Store here, said here Tuesday that he would have the store cleaned up, restocked and opened again by either Thursday or Friday. Mr. Steele said that Paul Russell, former manager of Thornton's Food Stores in Abilene, will be the local manager.

Mr. Russell said that he hoped that they would be ready to open by Thursday or Friday but that it might be Friday before they would be able to get all of their stock here.

Safeway closed the store here Saturday, Sept. 19, and moved all of their stock out to other stores. Curtis Dodd, manager for Safeway here, has been transferred to Dallas.

Mr. Steele is a resident of Spur and owns a store there as well as three other West Texas stores, including one in Aspermont.

Mr. Russell and his wife moved here the first of this week and are members of the Baptist Church. While not a member while in Abilene, he was a member of the Lions Club for a number of years.

He said that in his 30 years in the grocery business he has always tried to operate a friendly store with good personnel and customer relations. In announcing their intention of opening this week end, Mr. Russell said that they will offer a complete stock of nationally advertised brands and only choice quality meats. He added that all of their red meat will be served across the counter. The store will give Frontier Trading Stamps.

Jack Waldrop, who was employed by Safeway here, has been retained as assistant manager, according to Mr. Russell.

Plans are now being made for a big grand opening event in the near future.

Punt, Pass, Kick Competition Set For October 10

The fourth annual Punt, Pass and Kick competition will be held here Oct. 10, according to James Wright, Hamlin Jaycee and chairman of the event, to be sponsored by Connally Ford Sales.

Area boys eight through 13 can start signing up now. Prizes will be awarded to the most skillful in punting, passing and kicking.

Members of junior high football teams or boys certified to represent their school team are not eligible to participate.

Registration must be completed at the local Ford dealers by Oct. 9.

H-SU Graduate Named Education, Music Director

Bill R. Keck, formerly of Seymour and a 1960 graduate of Hardin-Simmons University has been elected director of music and education for the First Baptist Church of Hamlin. He and his wife will move here early next week and he will assume his responsibilities Oct. 7.

Keck recently received his Master of Religion Education degree from the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, Mill Valley, Calif. He earned the Bachelor of Arts in music from Hardin-Simmons, and also has attended the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He has served as minister of music for the First Baptist Church of Seymour and First Baptist of Haskell; as youth director for the First Baptist Church of Lake Jackson, and as minister of music and education for the Temple Baptist Church of Abilene. He also was minister of music and education in the First Southern Baptist Church of Salinas, Calif., and the Fairbanks Park Baptist Church of Sunnyvale, Calif.

He is a graduate of Seymour High School, and while in the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary was president of the Religious Education Club, a senior class officer and served as representative on the student council.

Mrs. Keck is the former Faye Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rogers of Gordon. She is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons.

Abilene Savings to Display Area Manufactured Goods October 5-9

ABILENE — The first comprehensive display of products manufactured in this West Texas area will be held at Abilene Savings Association on October 5-9, according to Soony Bentley, president.

"We believe that this is the very first opportunity that West Texans have had to see exactly how much their area is growing from a manufacturing standpoint," said Bentley, who is also president of the Abilene Chamber of Commerce.

Manufacturers from a 60-mile radius of Abilene have been invited to display their products at the association's main office, North 4th and Cedar during the week beginning October 5th.

"The display is being held in conjunction with an occasion recognizing the growth of Abilene Savings to $50 million in assets, and the people, the area and the industry which have helped make this growth possible," Bentley said.

Products manufactured within a 60-mile radius of Abilene include electrical appliances, air conditioners, household cleaning products, Western gear, clothing, watches, violins, band instruments, foods, plastics, oil field equipment and many others.

Several West Texas manufacturers in this area also sell their products in Europe and other overseas outlets.

Manufacturers who wish to display their products are requested to write Bob Jordan, Abilene Savings Association.

There is no charge for displaying products and, whenever possible, Abilene Savings will assist in transporting the products to and from Abilene.

Woman's Forum Places Bound 1939 Issue of Herald in Library

A permanently bound volume of The Hamlin Herald published May 26, 1939, marking the Twenty-fifth Anniversary of the ownership of the paper by the editor, Bowen Pope, was presented to the Harden Memorial Library at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of the Hamlin Women's Forum.

The 44-page edition is an accurate record of the history of Hamlin and its people up to 1939. The issue used was one which had been kept in good condition by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carpenter. The pages have been protected by a laminated plastic process.

Mrs. Dick Maberry and Mrs. Bob Craig of the Woman's Literary Club, members of a special committee appointed for the project, presented the book to Mrs. Joe League, Forum president. Mrs. League then placed it in the library by presenting it to Mrs. Dale Lain, library chairman.

The project was started last year and all clubs who are members of the Forum have taken part. The paper was preserved in order to have the information contained in the special issue in a convenient place for ready reference. The book must be used at the library and may not be checked out as other books.

The clubs sponsoring the project were: the Beta Theta and Xi Gamma Phi Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Business and Professional Women's Club, Fifty-two Study Club, Friendship Home Demonstration Club, Hamlin Garden Club and Woman's Literary Club.

The program was presented by Mrs. L. C. Bonds of the Beta Theta Chapter. She used a display of pictures of paintings by famous artists and discussed the paintings and the life of the artists.

The library committee reported that 43 books had been added to the shelves of the library. Other business included the presentation of revisions of the constitution and by-laws for the Forum.

The Forum meets quarterly, on fifth Tuesdays.

The services are being held in Spanish. The pastor, Rev. Higinio Martinez, is leading the song service.

The services began here Sunday and will continue nightly through Sunday, Oct. 4. This is being held as a part of a statewide Crusade aimed at reaching 2½ million unevangelized Latin American people of Texas with the gospel.

Jones County WMU To Meet Here Today

The Jones County Association of Women's Missionary Union will be held here today (Thursday) at the First Baptist Church beginning at 9:30 with a covered dish luncheon being served at 12:30 p.m.

The club meets every Tuesday evening at the Oil Mill Guest House.

Pipers to Open District Race With Stamford Fri.

The Pied Pipers will open their drive for the District 5-AA championship Friday night when they invade Stamford to take on the Bulldogs. While the Pipers were taking the week off last week to rest up for this encounter the Bulldogs were defeated by Breckenridge, 23-6.

Other district battles pit Winters at Anson; and Colorado City at Haskell. Ballinger takes this week off and will open their district play here next week against the Pipers.

Stamford will carry a 2-2 season record into Friday night's contest, holding wins over Quannah and Snyder and losses to Iowa Park and Breckenridge. The Pipers are undefeated after three outings this season.

The Bulldogs have a strong ground attack and a pretty good aerial assault, according to scouting reports by the Piper coaches. Top running back for the Bulldogs is Harrison Cole, a 162 pound halfback who is also a fine blocking back. For power Stamford calls on FB

Stamford calls on fullback Keith Kainer who weighs 195 pounds. At quarterback they run Rusty Kelley who weighs 147 pounds and is a good passer but does not run with the ball much.

The best receivers for the Bulldogs are halfback Bob Isbell and end Marc Lovvorn.

Top defensive boys are Kainer, Raymond Gomez and Eddie Jenkins.

Probable starting lineups for the Bulldogs and their weights are: QB—Kelley, 147 pounds; FB—Kainer, 195 pounds; HB—

Isbell, 156 pounds; HB—Cole, 162 pounds; ends—Lovvorn, 168 pounds, and Russell, 172 pounds, tackles—Johnny Massey, 178 pounds, and Roland Acosta, 200 pounds; guards—Jenkins, 172 pounds, and Gomez, 164 pounds; center—Buddy Box, 180 pounds.

Coach D. C. Andrews, said this week that while Larry Simpson's knee was doing better it was doubtful that he would get to see any action in Friday night's encounter. He said that they were still hoping but it did not seem too likely that he would be ready. Simpson was hurt in the Post game here two weeks ago.

While some of the boys are still nursing injuries early this week, Andrews said that he thought that they would all be ready by Friday.

Reserve seat tickets for the game are on sale at the three drug stores but it is reported that they are just about sold out. Stamford sent 400 tickets over here last week for the game.

Mike Young Receives High Scout Honor Here Monday Evening

Mike Young, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Young, received the Ad Altare Dei award during the Troop 43 Monday evening in the Scout Hut. Father Patrick O'Conner of Stamford pastor of the Holy Trinity Catholic Church here, made the presentation.

Mike is the first boy in Hamlin to receive such an award. The Ad Altare Dei is presented by the Catholic church through the Boy Scouts of America. Translated from the Latin it means "Toward the Altar of God." The honor is presented only to a Scout after the boy has spent much time in dedicated work with the pastor of his church. He serves in many ways assisting the pastor in tasks at the church and serving during services. Mike has put in more than a year's work in completing requirements for the honor. Only one other Jones County boy has received the award which was presented through the Protestant faith in Stamford. The Protestant church gives the "God and Country" award.

In making the presentation, Father O'Conner spoke to the Scouts briefly on how the principles of Scouting build character by building courage and self confidence and by encouraging a boy to seek knowledge and skills and to be honorable.

Other boys receiving Scouting honors were Bill Johnson, Bobby McKissack, Russell Williamson, Dave Weaver and David Riddle.

ACCORDING TO TRADE ASSOCIATION—

Oil and Gas Production Adds $17.1 Million A Year to Jones County Economy, 66th in State

A $17.1 million a year ingredient in the prosperity of Jones County is the production of oil and gas, the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association says in its current survey of economic factors stemming from petroleum operations here.

Using just-published U. S. Bureau of Mines figures as a base, the Association has projected what oil and gas activities mean in this county. In 1962 Jones County was producing more than 5.5 million barrels of crude oil and 6 billion cubic feet of natural gas. The oil was valued at $16.3 million; the natural gas at $761,000.

Jones County ranks 66th in the state as total value of oil and gas production.

"Demand for Texas crude picked up enough last year to give us an increase of about 3 per cent over 1962 on a statewide basis. This slightly improving trend seems to be holding this year as more autos are put on the road and nationwide business conditions accelerate," said James L. Sewell, president of the Association. "It will be several months, however, before we know to what extent individual counties are participating in the current market."

The dispersion of oil dollars through Jones County business channels and the healthy effect given property values by petroleum industry activity are indicated by several figures published by the Association.

It is estimated that royalty payments to Jones County land owners who are fortunate enough to have producing wells on their property create a "crop" worth about $2.1 million annually. These and other farmers and ranchers who have leased acreage for exploration receive additional rental and bonus payments, but sufficient current data is not available for measuring the amount.

Oil and gas operators invest an estimated $2.8 million in Jones County last year in the search for new fields and in the development of zones where production has been found. The Oil and Gas Journal reports that 134 wells were drilled in the county in 1963, resulting in 64 oil wells, and 70 dry holes.

Drilling operations included 47 wildcat wells in which operators hunted oil in new territory or at new depths. About $1.3 million of the drilling expenditures was lost to dry holes, the Association estimated.

Petroleum industry payrolls contribute about $1.4 million a year to the county, according to Texas Employment Commission records. They show about 250 persons directly employed in oil and gas operations.

The state government's financial interest in Jones County operations is measured by the $805,000 a year which the operators and royalty owners provide the state government in production taxes. These payments are in addition to those paid to local units of government and schools as property taxes. Oil and gas property taxes are reflected in local support of many Texas school districts. For example, 26 per cent of the local taxes for the Anson School District comes from oil and gas operations; 45.7 per cent at Avoca; 54.7 per cent at Hamlin; 63.5 per cent at Hawley; and 62.5 per cent at Lueders.

Among the county's industrial operations is the processing of oil and gas. A natural gasoline plant is operated here to recover butane, propane, natural gasoline and other liquids from natural gas. It has a capacity of 20 million cubic feet a day.

MAKING WAY...

The drawbridge makes way for the boat to come into the city and down the canal. Dredges make canals in open waters such as the gulf to make way for ships to travel an inter-coastal waterway. Police officers and secret service men clear a path in the crowds to make way for an important foreign potentate so that he might arrive at his destination.

Church members are the ones who can clear the way, and show the right path to those who have not found the way to our Lord.

Isaiah 40:3B reads, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God."

Support your church in every way you can. Ask someone to attend church with you this week.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

FAIRVIEW NEWS

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

From Last Week
We were all happy that one of our girls, out our way, was chosen homecoming queen of the high school. Nancy Ford was crowned Saturday night, along with Mrs. Kenneth Riddle, who was queen of the ex-students. Mrs. Riddle was re-elected in Hamlin, but her husband, Kenneth, is one of our ex-residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Joiner, Jerry and Susan, spent Saturday night and Sunday, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner. Mrs. Joiner was one of the nominees for ex-queen.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Rosenbaum, Pampa, came home for the homecoming, visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum.

Joe Randal is the name that was chosen for the new son of the Jack D. Wrights, at news time last week the name had not been learned.

Dorothy Gray came home from Amarillo, last weekend, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray.

This reporter spent most of last week in the big city of Houston, as a delegate to the State Home Demonstration Convention, held in the Rice Hotel. Had a wonderful time, there were some outstanding highlights in the convention this year, and just had an all around good time. Forty one women rode a chartered bus from district 3, which includes twelve counties, the women from Jones county having to go to Benjamin, to board the bus. Four ladies from Jones attended, Mrs. Karl Bonneau, Goodman club, Mrs. H. H. Dunklin, Avoca club, Mrs. H. A. Haynes, Willow Creek club, and myself, from the Friendship club.

This Week
About the main topic of conversation you hear, any where you go now, is the rainy weather, but the sun is shining brightly this Monday morning, after it rained most of last week and being cloudy and dreary. Heaters had to come out of storage over the week end, making us realize that winter will soon be here.

Since the Family night was planned again at the park, last Wednesday night, as usual it was rained out, but was to be held at the church, Wednesday night, in connection with the mid week services. Sandwiches, dessert and coffee, with cold drinks, were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Flavi Holmes have both been on the sick list, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray ate lunch with the Woodrow Goodwins, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clois Henry and children, of San Angelo, spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry.

Sunday afternoon visitors of the Henrys were, Mrs. Vida Baker and Mrs. Ora McCollough, of Rule.

Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Leverett, attended a dinner at Hardin-Simmons, last Tuesday evening, honoring the pastors and their wives, of this area. Main speaker of the evening was Dr. James Landes, president of H. S. U. They reported a wonderful and inspiring evening. Jimmy and Kristy also had a good time visiting with grandmother, in Abilene.

Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin and Mrs. Elmer Joiner visited Mrs. Lois Hampton, in the Crestview Nursing Home, in Abilene, Saturday morning. Mrs. Hampton is undergoing therapy treatments, on her paralyzed side, also speech therapy. The therapist has high hopes that she will be able to walk again, as her leg is responding to treatment. She is also learning to speak a few words, which makes her many friends and relatives hopeful that she will make a recovery, even though limited.

The Woodrow Goodwins have a new house under construction, in south Hamlin. After a long period of planning and waiting, it can now be told, for work really started last week, the rain slowed it down, but with some pretty weather, they should soon see it taking shape. They will move into it when it is completed, continuing to farm.

German beehives are painted bright colors to guide the bees to their own hives.

TB Board to Meet

The Jones County Tuberculosis Board will meet at Jack's Steak House in Anson, Monday, Oct. 5, at 7:30 p.m., according to Ina B. Dougherty, executive secretary of the T. B. Association for Jones County.

All board members and other interested persons are urged to attend.

Wins Free Gift

Mrs. L. B. Williams, 530 West Lake Drive, was winner of the free gift, a lava set, given at Betty's Gift Shop during open house Saturday.

Punch and cookies were served during the day by Reba Long and Rhonda Hallmark.

Pep Squad Going All Out in Building Spirit for Football Game

Pipers Meet Bulldogs This Week

"Go! Fight! Win!" read the signs adorning the halls of HHS this week. The lockers are covered with signs to promote the spirit of each member of the student body. The ambitious pep squad has worked long hours preparing these spirit banners for the Piper's first conference game of the season Friday night at Bulldog Stadium.

The football boys, recuperating from their many injuries received in the Post game, are practicing and working out diligently in order to be prepared for this "game of the year."

The coaches are expecting a tough contest with the outcome to be in Hamlin's favor, if everyone is out backing the team.

—hhs—

As the year advances various school organizations are planning this year's activities.

The Future Homemakers of America met Sept. 17, to initiate its new members. A panel discussion was presented to inform the new members about the activities and functions of this organization. Mary Lois Patterson, as narrator, introduced and conducted the discussion with Revonna Robertson, Mary Margaret Turner, Judy Jenkins, Barbara Graham,

National Honor Society Soon Will Select Members

With the approach of the end of the first six weeks of the school term Oct. 9, the time has come for the National Honor Society to make plans for the induction of new members into the organization.

The Hamlin Chapter, with Mrs. Charles Scott as advisor, follows the policy of the National organization. New members are inducted each year shortly after the completion of the first six weeks of grades.

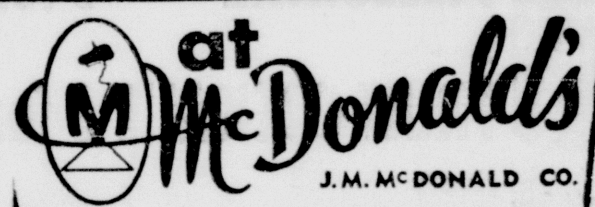

The National organization was established to give recognition to a combination of four qualities, rather than to a specific skill or achievement. Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service are the four qualities upon which membership is based.

Character and Scholarship are unquestioned traits of a member of any honor club. However, National Honor Society members should be those students who also take an interest in others and their welfare, who give themselves freely in service to those about them.

Local membership is limited in another way, too. Only fifteen per cent of any year's senior class may be members, and only ten per cent of the junior class.

By secret ballot, junior and senior students with high scholastic averages are rated by a committee consisting of the members of the National Honor Society and an equal number of faculty members.

Incumbent ASC County Members Reelected at Sept. Convention

The incumbent ASC County Committee was reelected at the County Convention held in the County ASCS Office on Sept. 18. Members of the County Committee are: J. No. 1 Weaver, Chairman; A. Darwin Hill, Vice Chairman; John E. Nix, Third Regular Member. The tenure of office is one year, beginning Oct. 1, 1964.

Each farmer who serves as an ASC Committeeman will have a hand in deciding the kind of program the County will have and how they will be run. The Committeeman is in a position to make lasting contributions to the soundness of conservation and agriculture, and to the improvement of farm income in the county. A Committeeman's job is important to other farmers.

The use of farmer elected committees follows the farmer's tradition of retaining, as his sovereign right, a citizen's voice and responsibility in public affairs. This tradition has survived the technological revolution in agriculture and the political, social, and economic changes in the Nation.

Such tradition and confidence led the Congress and the Department of Agriculture to place upon farmer committees much responsibility for running farm programs locally. ASC Committees operate within official regulations designed to carry out Federal laws. However, within the regulations, they apply their judgment and knowledge and make their decisions.

ASC County Committees have many duties and responsibilities. In production adjustment, they established farm normal yields, consider complaints of producers, supervise referendums on marketing quotas, and determine penalties and adjustments. In conservation, they formulate local programs, review farmer requests for cost-sharing on needed practices, and recommend changes in State and National programs.

In price support, they supervise the determination of producers' eligibility and decide what is adequate collateral for loans. Committees have similar kinds of responsibilities in connection with the wool, feed grain and wheat diversion programs.

ASC Committees review violations, hold hearings, and make other determinations and recommendations in connection with all programs. Perhaps their most difficult responsibility is their role of impartial judge in a variety of cases that come under their jurisdiction. Often, it's a matter of balancing the general interest with the individual's interest. They work with their ASC State

Committee and the Department of Agriculture, and are responsible for keeping farmers and others informed on farm programs of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Your ASC Committee has an intimate understanding of farm problems and of people in the County. This enables the Committee to make local adaptations of farm problems within the needs of farmers. You as a farmer directly affected by laws to meet the different farm programs are run locally. And you have the mechanism for transmitting ideas on policies and programs from the "grassroots".

Your ASC Committeemen, both individually and working as a committee, have a dual role. They serve as representatives of you and your neighbors in these programs. They also serve as representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture. Your local ASC Committee meets each Friday at the County ASCS Office.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — It's almost time to vote again. General election ballots already are in the hands of local officials, for printing.

Secretary of State Crawford C. Martin has mailed out the sample ballot to the clerks. Along with a 44-page certified list of all state and district candidates. Many clerks had been pressing for the material so they could order necessary printing well in advance of the November 3 election date.

Absentee voting begins 20 days before the general election, and clerks must post ballots 10 days earlier than that.

This ballot will list Democratic nominees in column 1, Republicans in column 2 and Constitution Party candidates in column 3.

Three constitutional amendments also will appear on the ballot:

One would remove authorization for transfer of up to one per cent a year from the permanent school fund to the available school fund for current spending.

Another would set tougher requirements for creation of special conservation and reclamation districts; and

The third would permit the Legislature to authorize medical care payments (on a matching basis with the federal government) to needy persons over 65 who are not receiving old age assistance.

Martin held up his final certification of candidates pending a Supreme Court ruling on a Scurry and Borden Counties suit. Court declined to hear Snyder attorney J. Ray Martin's request for listing as an independent candidate for 132nd district attorney. Martin also sought, unsuccessfully, to keep Democratic nominee for district attorney, Wayland G. Holt, off the November ballot.

MENTAL RETARDED FACILITY APPROVED

Gov. John Connally has directed a fund transfer between two state agencies to create a Regional Diagnostic and Referral Center for mental retarded at Denton State School.

State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools requested the executive action calling for transfer of a $467,000 grant from the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare by the State Department of Health.

Center will provide services in diagnosis, management of the the retarded and training of personnel for the North Texas area surrounding Dallas and Fort Worth. The Children's Bureau grant will be used to pay personnel over a five-year period.

Application has been made for a Hill-Burton grant to finance construction of a building.

CITIZENS COMPLAIN

A band of citizens from Nolan County came to Austin to call on State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer with a petition requesting his department to reconsider a decision to close the engineering office at Sweetwater.

Greer said the decision to close was due to slackening of the work load in that area, but said that the petition will be given careful consideration.

WATER

Water engineers from 17 Western States discussed and swapped ideas on how their states are attacking the coming water crisis at the Association of Western State Engineers' convention here.

Marvin C. Nichols of Fort Worth told the group that the proposal of the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation for a canal along the Gulf Coast, to carry surplus waters from the Sabine and Nueces to water-shy Gulf Coast areas of South Texas, should be held up until the state gets the money from the Legislature to investigate alternatives. He feels that canals or pipelines, carrying surplus East Texas water to upper points of Central and South Texas streams, would be far better. Thus the water could be used more than once.

Leon Hill of Amarillo, regional director of the Bureau of Reclamation, said that engineers can propose plans, but they must be refined into "people plans" before they will gain enough public acceptance to reach reality.

John Simmons of Orange, general manager of the Sabine River Authority, endorsed the idea of that big river's surplus water being carried to areas which need it. He believes such transfers of water should be made by arrangements between river authorities, under supervision of the Texas Water Commission.

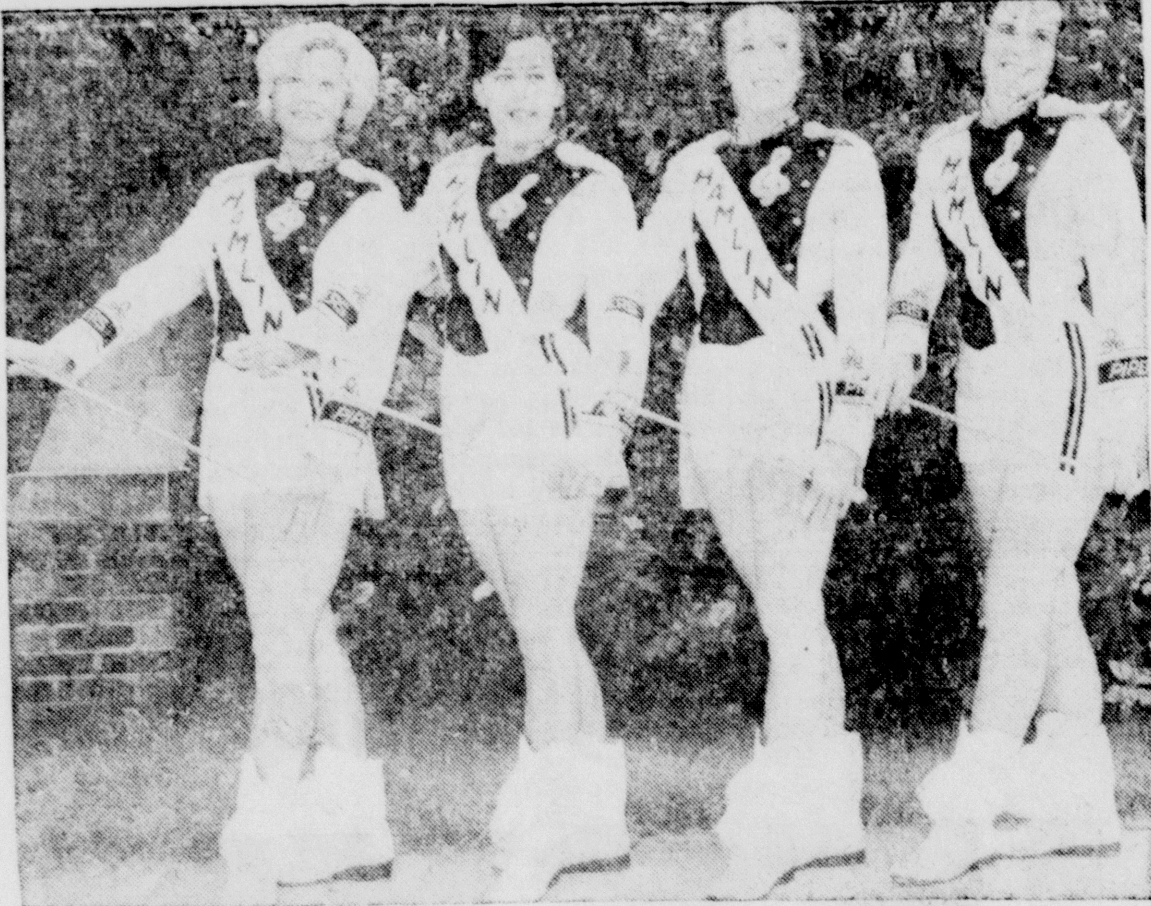

J. E. Sturrock of Austin, manager of the Texas Water Conservation Association, told the delegates that by the year 2010, population growth may necessitate the $100,000,000,000 proposal to move water from Alaska to supply the Southwest United States and Northwest Mexico. He warned the water engineers that it is their responsibility to educate the people on the coming crisis in water, and to be ready with proposals to meet that crisis.

VAST LAND PROGRAM RENEWAL URGED

State Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler says Texans ought to vote again on whether to continue the veterans land program.

It is just now starting to make money for the state, he advises in his annual General Land Office report. Profits were reported as nearly $3,000,000 last year and eventually should run to $80,000,000 may-be $100,000,000.

Voters last year turned down a proposal to issue an additional $150,000,000 in bonds to continue the purchase of land for resale to qualified veterans at low interest rates.

Several Activities Being Planned For 4-H Club Week in Jones County

By Kirby Clayton
Mary Y. Newberry

Jones Co. Extension Agents

Four hundred Jones County 4-H Club members will join hands with 80,000 other members in the State of Texas to observe National 4-H Club Week, Sept. 26 - Oct. 3, according to Jones County Extension Agents, Kirby Clayton and Mary Y. Newberry and Kirby Clayton. The Head - Heart - Hands - Health youth are among 2 1-4 million members of 94,700 clubs in urban, suburban and rural areas throughout the 50 states and Puerto Rico. With the goal of "4-H for More in '64", current emphasis is on the program's flexibility — club projects and activities adaptable to fit needs of youth from any background or circumstance.

Among the special 4-H week activities planned for Jones County are:

Special radio and television program by 4-H members and local leaders where the value of 4-H Club work will be explained.

In addition 4-H Club members will display 4-H posters and put on special programs on 4-H Club work.

Also, a part of the National 4-H Club week celebration will be a county wide effort by Extension Agents, local leaders and club members to enroll additional club members in the local 4-H program. The enrollment theme is "Each One Get One" which means that if each club member enrolls another, the county's club enrollment will double during this push.

Special incentive awards are being offered by the Extension Service for those members who enroll one or more members.

Incentive awards include member buttons, gate signs and flag sets.

A major local and national aim of this year's 4-H Week observance will be to recognize the 50th anniversary of the Cooperative Extension Service, of which the 4-H youth program is a significant part. In
